

Week Commencing 6th July 2020

DAILY LESSON AT 11AM ON ZOOM. YOU MUST JOIN IN.

10am – Make sure you join in a FREE Phonics lesson

Literacy

Watch Mrs Sandhar read "Handa's Surprise"

Yum yum, a lot of delicious fruit! We would like you to taste a range of fruit this week.

Write some descriptive sentences to describe different fruit e.g. The apple is sweet. The strawberry is red.

Ext: After watching the story you can write a list of animals and the fruit they eat.

Topic

Make a list of what you will need to make a fruit kebab. Choose 2 or 3 fruits from the story that you would use. Make your fruit kebab. Share it for lunch or tea with your family. We would love to see a picture of you eating your fruit kebab!

Handa had a big basket of fruit. Collect your bowl of fruit and do an observational drawing.

Are you as fit as Handa? Practise your balancing skills. Walk along your room with something balanced on your head. Here are some things you could use; a pillow, a book, a teddy, a banana)

Have a look at these patterns taken from African Masks. Could you have a go at making your very own mask? Think about the bright colour and patterns you could create.
