

You can do all these things on your own or with an adult. Have fun with them!

Literacy	Get exercising	Maths	Making something	Helping out at home	Learn a new skill
 Come up with a settings description to match this picture? (What is going on? Adverbs, Expanded noun phrases)	Go onto YouTube and watch Joe Wicks the body coach. Get active doing the nations PE lessons.	 $42 + 19 =$ $27 - _ = 16$ $8 \times 2 =$ $21 \div 3 =$ List the prime numbers to 20 	Make an animal out of things you are allowed to use at home. Be creative. Look at the animal online what body parts does it have? How are you going to make it?	Ask whoever is at home what jobs you can do to help around the house.	Teach yourself something new. What have you always wanted to try?
Go onto https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/50434875 Link is above the document. Watch any episode of happy news. Tell me something about what you watched. What did you see? How did it make you feel? What about it did you like/dislike?	Go onto YouTube and find Just Dance, can you copy it? Show it to an adult in your house	Go to Hit the Button or Times Table Rockstars. Challenge a teacher!	Make up your own chocolate bar. Draw it Design it What is the packaging like? What does it taste like?	Ask whoever is at home what jobs you can do to help around the house.	Teach yourself something new. What have you always wanted to try?